Biodata

Kavita Kaul, M.S., Au.D. CCC-SLP/A

Dr. Kaul is a private practitioner and owner of Kavita N. Kaul PLLC. She evaluates and treats individuals with Auditory Processing Disorders. She has been practicing as a Speech Language Pathologist/Audiologist since 1989. Her dual certification in Speech Language Pathology and Audiology is especially helpful in treating and assessing individuals with Auditory Processing Disorders (APD). Her philosophy is that auditory processing therapy is an integral piece of the puzzle of communication disorders. Establishing ‘Sound Foundations’ facilitates and enhances the outcome of other therapies and the whole brain integration (www.hearexpresslearnprocess.com).
